The English-Speaking Union

The English-Speaking Union delivers education programmes and competitions across England and Wales that enable a wide range of young people to 'discover their voice'. Central to our mission is a commitment to working with schools and young people to narrow gaps in opportunity and achievement.

Most competitions are judged by ESU Volunteers who are based regionally and allow us to reach more young people across England and Wales.

Note

This job description is not a contract but is provided for a volunteer's guidance on the way in which the duties of the post are to be carried out. The content of the job description may change from time to time and the volunteer will be consulted over any substantial changes. As a volunteer, you may be required to perform work not specifically mentioned above commensurate with the scope of your role within the ESU.

The ESU is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people. Therefore, we expect all employees and volunteers to share this commitment. All appointments are subject to satisfactory pre-employment checks, including identity checks and signing of a volunteer agreement and the ESU's code of conduct.

To Apply

In order to apply to be a judge, you must complete the online training module here. An ESU staff member will then be in touch with you to follow up.

You can also contact the ESU's volunteer management staff at volunteering@esu.org to find out more about the role.
