FAVOURITE SHAKESPEARE MONOLOGUES AND DUOLOGUES OF PROFESSIONAL ACTORS
#esufestivalofspeaking

Katy Stephens

My choice of duologue would be Suffolk and Margaret’s goodbye scene in Henry VI Part 2 Act 3, Scene 2.

It’s so romantic and beautifully written and just a second ago you hate them both and then the brilliance of Shakespeare’s characters and writing pull you around to feel sorry for them both.

My favourite monologue would be Cleopatra’s speech about Antony in Act 5, Scene 2 of Antony and Cleopatra: “I dreamt there was an Emperor Antony…”

This is again because is so beautifully written and romantic; the images are so epic and vibrant...

Photo taken of me during a dress rehearsal for the Oresteia by Aeschylus at The Globe.