

THE ENGLISH SPEAKING UNION Lincolnshire Branch

The Rt Hon Lord Patten of Barnes CH GCMG

Friday 11th November 2022 at 6:30 pm

LINCOLN COLLEGE

Monks Road, Lincoln, LN2 5HQ

‘Public Service around the World - from Belfast, Westminster and Brussels on the way to Hong Kong’

Our guest speaker this year is Chris Patten, Lord Patten of Barnes, Chancellor of Oxford University. When MP for Bath (1979-92) he served as Minister for Overseas Development, Secretary of State for the Environment and Chairman of the Conservative Party. He was Governor of Hong Kong from 1992 until 1997, Chairman for the Independent Commission on Policing after the Good Friday Agreement in 1998 and European Commissioner for External Relations from 1999 until 2004. The Observer has described him as 'the best Tory Prime Minister we never had'.

He is one of the sixteen Knights of the Thistle and Knight Grand Cross of the Order of St Michael and St George (Chancellor 2011-2021). He was awarded America's highest civilian honour, the Presidential Medal of Freedom in 2003. He is an Honorary Fellow of the Royal Society of Edinburgh and Fellow of the Royal College of Defence Studies.
